

If you are concerned about potential flooding during the freshet this year there will be sand and bags available at the Cache Creek Park. We ask that you only attend with members of your immediate family and that you wait until a group is finished before filling your own to maintain social distancing.

Please bring your own shovels and be sure to take them home with you.

Please be respectful and maintain distance.